

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM REV. DOCTOR GEORGE WOOD

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 17, 1874.

During the week we have had a regular driving snow storm—a fierce gale doing, we fear, great damage on the sea, and occasioning great distress to the poor people everywhere, who are little prepared for such an experience. Many houses, it is said, are crushed in the villages by the weight of snow, and there is suffering from want of food and charcoal. Business in the city here was interrupted for two days, the steamers being much hindered in their trips on the Bosphorus, and the streets quite blocked. The storm has ceased; the sun is melting the deep snow, and you can imagine what is the general condition of things without.

Simultaneous with the war of elements latrigues have been going on in the Palace, and we have a new Grand Vizier; a notoriously unworthy and unfit man taking the place of one who done really quite well, and inaugurated some valuable reforms. The rock on which every administration splits is the money question. How to meet the demands of the Sultan and carry on the government is the grand difficulty. Money had to be borrowed at 8 per cent to pay the January interest on the last loan; and now Sadyk Pasha has been sent to Paris and London to raise, if he can, another loan of £8,000,000. The enormous interest offered tempts capitalists to lend; but what the upshot will be it is not very difficult to foresee.

And just at this time there are new attempts to limit our work of circulating the Scriptures and other books, particularly in the Turkish language. Yesterday three policemen called at the Bible House to take possession of all Turkish Scriptures on the pretext that they had been printed without permission. They were obliged to go to the American and British embassies for authority; and there is now negotiation between them and the Porte on the subject. The result will be that we shall win, and the circulation will be helped by the noise of the affair. The immediate occasion of this was the selling of copies of the Gospels in the Bazaar by a colporteur; in January over 2,000 Scriptures (Bibles and portions) were sold in this city, about one half being Turkish. It is reported that the Sheikh at Islam—the ecclesiastical head of the Moslems—is much excited over the spread of the Scriptures and Christian tracts in Turkish, and determined to arrest it. The new Grand Vizier is a bigoted Old School Turk, and will do what he can in that time. But there is One mightier than he or even the great Padiash himself, and our trust is in Him.

After a nearly five months' fight we have gained the battle for a legal contract for the lease of the House from the Government Office, which was refused on the ground of the opposition of the Armenians to our coming in among them with a Protestant school. It has been a curious affair, in which our patience has been sorely tried, but the result of which is satisfactory.

So we go on from one thing to another in our conflict with the powers of evil; in this great centre of influence "where Satan's seat is." Would that we could see such a work of the Spirit as the papers report to us from many places in our native land and as we hear of from Edinburgh and other cities in Great Britain. We see a renewing work in a few hearts, and trust that seed is being sown for a spiritual harvest in the future.

Much of my time is occupied in correspondence made necessary in the prosecution of our operations, and besides other work I have undertaken a Commentary on certain portions of the New Testament to be specially adapted to the wants of this people. I have begun on the Epistle to the Romans and expect to enjoy the labor very much. It is much more agreeable to me than was the kind of work I had in charge at New York. Mr. Smith, now in America, is to prepare a Commentary on the Gospels in a Harmony, and Mr. Herick, Mr. Tray and I take the rest of the New Testament, my part being Romans, the Epistle to Timothy, Titus and Philimon, and the Epistle of James, Peter, John, and Jude.

NEW JERSEY.
John G. Voss, a wealthy resident of Orange, and a lawyer in the New York courts, committed suicide at Atlantic City last week by drowning himself.

Fourteen lodgers in the Jersey City Station house were taken by variation last week to the Jersey City Theatre to witness the evening performance.

Rev. Dr. Wakenham has received and accepted a unanimous call to the Presbyterian church of Milburn, to commence his labors on the 1st of May next.

The Legislature has just passed a bill authorizing the collection of ten cents extra from Railroad passengers who pay their fare in the cars. We feel sure the justice of this.

Bloomfield Avenue Bill of Mr. Morrow, throwing the assessments for this grading and telford work upon the towns of Bloomfield and Montclair, was defeated in the Legislature through the earnest labor and effective influence of our representative, Mr. Halsey. The assessments for benefits, we suppose, will therefore stand as last reported.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN ORANGE.—A disastrous fire visited the city of Orange on Monday night. About nine o'clock fire broke out in Fell & Brennan's hat factory, on New street, and communicated to the adjoining house, known as Shamrock Hall, a three-and-a-half story structure, belonging to Michael Davis, and occupied by nine families and the Ancient Order of Hibernians. All the machinery in Mr. Fell's was destroyed, entailing a loss of about $5,000.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Second Annual Institute of the Teachers of Essex County will be held in the Public School Building, Bloomfield, commencing Tuesday, March 31, and continuing four days.

The attention of school officers and teachers is called to the following rule prescribed by the State Board of Education at its session held January 28, 1874:

All teachers shall be required to attend the Annual Institute, held in the county in which they are teaching, except for cause satisfactory to the County Superintendent; and no deduction shall be made by trustees from the salary of teachers for the time they are in actual attendance upon said Institute.

It is hoped that School officers and others interested in the cause of education, will attend the meetings of the Institute, which will be of great interest and value, not only to teachers but to all who can attend them.

CHARLES M. DAVIS,
County Superintendent.
